After reviewing 19 applications, the JEF Board selected Matthew Tyler Warren, as the winner of the 2009 Johnstone Education Foundation Scholarship. Tyler is a student at the Mississippi State University Starkville, MS with an overall GPA of 4.0. He will graduate in May 2010 with a Bachelor of Business Administration, majoring in Risk Management, Insurance, and Financial Planning. He plans to complete an internship this summer with New York Life. Tyler made a promise that the JEF contribution to his education will not be wasted. He is dedicated to achieving his educational and career goals, and this scholarship will be instrumental to his success.

“I want to thank the Johnstone Education Foundation for awarding me with this scholarship. It is a great honor to receive this scholarship. The JEF scholarship will assist me in finishing my education, and ultimately becoming a financial planner.”
